

Sustainable Solutions:

Compost

Tumbler

This is the fastest method and could produce compost within a few weeks. Just add the debris, water as needed, and give it a turn. The constant tumbling continually mixes the browns and greens, allowing them to break down more rapidly. The only downside is that a system like this has to be purchased.